—One of our exchanges says: "The tongue of slander is hard at work just now." Poor old tongue, how it does blast, and wither, and corrupt, and contract, and defile, and defame the wagged at, and the wagger.

—To-morrow (Friday) the curtain drops upon the last scene of the great National Tragedy, and Guiteau makes his final bow to all things terrestrial. Justice, though tardy in this case, is sure, and the world satisfied.

—This week the Fort Gratiot Sun comes to us with Joe E. Soules as sole proprietor, Mr Finn having taken up his abode with the Port Huron Times. Bro Soules is capable of making the Sun rise each week and we are sure he will do his biggest to have it shine for everybody.

—Thos Rapley gives up possession of the house lately purchased by Reuben Emery, on Saturday, and Mr Emery will move in and hereafter conduct it under the name of the Commercial House. Mr. E. has had considerable experience in the hotel business and will, no doubt, make a good landlord.

It was evening. Three of them were killing a cat. One of them held a lantern, another held the cat, and the third jammed a pistol into the cat's ear and fired shooting the man in the hand who held the cat, and the man with the lantern was wounded in the arm. The cat left when it saw how matters stood and that ill-feeling was being engendered.

—They had been married exactly 10 months, and one day, when she found it necessary to sign a paper, she wrote her maiden name in full. "What?" he ejaculated. "Oh! how foolish," she said, "I forgot that I was married." And then he jammed his hands down into his pockets and wondered if that was a reflection on his character or what, and finally concluded it was what.

—A small cyclone of the blizzard style came down upon our village last Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock, doing considerable damage to the furniture, crockery and woman in a house on Woodward avenue. The storm spent its force in one spot, and the way it swirled and roared was terrible in the extreme. What raised the wind (or the Devil) was, "Johnnie come marching home" with too much benzine under his waist-coat.

—A young son of Anthony Welsh was left to mind the drug store of F. C. Baker yesterday for a few minutes, and, thinking it a good time to replenish his pocket with cash, slipped behind the counter and took from the drawer a $5 bill. He waited until Fred came back and then going over to W. H. Palmer's asked him to change it saying a man at the post-office sent him over. Mr Palmer suspecting there was something wrong went over to the post-office to see who the man was, but could not find anyone. On looking around he found the owner as above stated.

—Sir Knight A. R. McLenagan, the Record Keeper of Pontiac Tent, is the editor of the Daily Bee, a spy little sheet which he shoots at the Pontiacers every evening. A Bee printer in a Macabee Hive ought to make things hum.—Port Huron Bee Hive. His Knightship was once a resident of our village, and was Record Keeper of Red Ribbon Club and other things. He made a very efficient "keeper," but how he got transmogrified into the bee family is a mystery yet to be explained. Perhaps the business end and that does the stinging has been extracted and Mac made queen bee, accounts for it. That Hive will hum and swarm too.

—The Rawson Reapers and Mowers, handled by F. S. Poole are the lightest and strongest machine in the market. The mow is the easiest managed machine in the trade, and the one best adapted to all conditions of grass and land. In the improved reaper for the season of 1882, is presented a model machine tried in all its parts and found wanting in none. Lightest draft and strongest as it is possible to make it in all parts subjected to severe or steady strain. The greatest care is exercised in the manufacture of these machines and we are confident that they are just what the American Farmer wants, and without which they cannot afford to work their land. Critical examination and comparison is solicited.
F. S. POOLE, Agent.

GRAND SUCCESS.

The Masonic Supper and Lecture held in this place, on Monday evening, was a grand success. Everyone performed their part well and those present were more than pleased with the exercises of the evening. Rev. Dr. Flower, of Marine City, delivered an eloquent and masterly address on "The Origin and Progress of Masonry," from the time of Adam until the present, including Abraham and Moses, Hiram King of Tyre, Solomon King of Israel, King David, St John the Baptist, St John the Evangelist, and down to Geo Washington the father of our country and our myrtled President James A. Garfield who were all eminent patrons of Masonry as well as the best men the country ever knew. The vocal and instrumental music rendered by the Brockway choir, C. W. Stratton, leader, was splendid. Their selections were rendered with taste and skill and entitled them to the applause they received. This choir have always stood high, and they certainly on this occasion added another leaf to their wreath. The proceeds of the evening were $61. A social time was had Tuesday evening at which $15 was realized.

Suspect a tale bearer, and never trust him with a secret who is fond of entertaining you with another's.

Everybody Read This!

Low the man with the mule,
Takes everything cool,
But he keeps moving about.
His wagon runs easy
When he keeps it greasy,
And the little mules are stout.
He draws goods by the load,
And can be found on the road,
Between the city and station.
He is not a dead beat,
But will work so cheap,
As to almost surprise the Nation.
